ABOUT ME

My passion is creating uplifting, beautiful content for kid's media brands that stand out from the crowd. I am always striving to improve kids' lives through my work. Always bringing new and original ideas to the table, I have spearheaded processes, concepts and original ideas throughout my career. I thrive when working on a team and have strong collaborative and interpersonal skills.

EXPERIENCE HIGHLIGHTS

- Creative Production & Brand Building As a key member of the development team, created a bold aesthetic vision for the preschool series CHARLIE'S COLORFORMS CITY (Netflix). Upon greenlight, performed Art Director and Creative Producer tasks, giving notes and guidance on scripts, animatic, design, animation and VFX stages of production with an off-site team to ensure the highest quality of design & visual storytelling was met. Collaborated with executive staff, researchers and stakeholders to ensure the series' and brands' success and secure additional seasons.
- Product Development & Design Illustrated and directed a modern visual refresh of the vintage Colorforms branded toy sets for an updated product line emphasizing open-ended play and creativity. Currently available through multiple retailers.
- Art Direction Created original art for the look and feel of WISHENPOOF (Amazon Studios). Directed an off-site production team to ensure the look of the series was consistent across two seasons & across product.
- Series Creation Created original art, a bible and pitch package for a new preschool series that teaches kids fundamental math and money smarts which is currently under consideration at a major network. Designed & produced series pitch decks and packages.
- Production Design Designed characters and sets for award winning children's shows including TEAM UMIZOOMI (Nick Jr), THE WONDER PETS (Nick Jr.) and 3RD & BIRD (Disney Junior)
